

Braves Down Matty, but Are Crushed by Tesreau Before Greatest Crowds in Game's History

GIANTS STILL TIED IN LEAD WITH BRAVES

Tesreau Beats Tyler, 10 to 1, in Afternoon After Matty Loses to Rudolph.

MORNING CROWD 35,000 AND OTHER ONE 40,000

Umpires Banish McGraw From Field Twice—Pop Bottles Aimed at Snodgrass.

The Giants and Braves in their grapple for first place fought each other to a standstill yesterday. In the morning the Braves came from behind and won a seesaw battle in the last inning. In the afternoon the Giants ran away from them and clinched their lead by even terms.

Yesterday's Results. Boston, 4; New York, 3 (morning game). Philadelphia, 1; Brooklyn, 4 (morning game). Chicago, 5; Detroit, 7 (afternoon game).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs. Table with columns for Team, Wins, Losses, Games Played, etc.

Today's Schedule. New York in Boston. Brooklyn in Philadelphia. St. Louis in Pittsburgh.

After being trimmed in a workmanlike manner by the Boston Red Sox yesterday morning the New Yorks took a hand in the contest, game and vanquished the Red Sox by a mere one-sided score in the second arbitration.

Two singles and an infield out took a run off Crutcher in the ninth. The scores: Boston, 10; New York, 1.

NEW YORK (A. L.) BOSTON (N. L.) Score: 10 to 1. First base on error—Murray. Left on base—New York, 4; Boston, 1.

NEW YORK (A. L.) BOSTON (N. L.) Score: 10 to 1. First base on error—Murray. Left on base—New York, 4; Boston, 1.

NOTES OF THE GIANTS.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—Boston should be favorite for tomorrow's rubber. Stallings looked on James McGraw as likely to depend upon DeLoe or Marquard.

CHANCES MEN BREAK EVEN WITH RED SOX

First Game Close Until Cole Appears—Then Boston's Clinch It.

KEATING IN FINE FORM Wood Bench for Kicking in Second, and Bedient Has a Wild Fit.

The American League scrapping yesterday did not change the standing of the clubs and made little effect on relative standings. There were even breaks except between the Cleveland and Browns, and as the Browns lost twice to the New Yorks, breaking even with Boston, gained on them.

Yesterday's Results. Boston, 2; New York, 1 (first game). New York, 3; Boston, 1 (seven innings). Philadelphia, 1; Washington, 7 (morning game).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs. Table with columns for Team, Wins, Losses, Games Played, etc.

Today's Schedule. Boston in New York. Philadelphia in Washington.

After being trimmed in a workmanlike manner by the Boston Red Sox yesterday morning the New Yorks took a hand in the contest, game and vanquished the Red Sox by a mere one-sided score in the second arbitration.

A double bill on a holiday in the shape of two games for one admission proved popular, and at least 20,000 persons went to see them.

For a club which had just downed the Athletics four straight the Red Sox were not particularly excited or formidable. Their playing didn't dazzle anybody with its brilliancy, though they condensed blows effectively to win the first game.

HARMON WINS FOR PIRATES. Pirates defeated the Pirates in the morning game by a score of 7 to 4.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE. Yesterday's Results. Baltimore, 7; Toronto, 3 (morning game). Jersey City, 2; Baltimore, 1 (afternoon game).

At Wilmington, Del. Jersey City (I. L.) 2 to 1 over Baltimore (I. L.).

At Buffalo. Buffalo (I. L.) 2 to 1 over Toronto (I. L.).

At Buffalo. Buffalo (I. L.) 2 to 1 over Toronto (I. L.).

At Buffalo. Buffalo (I. L.) 2 to 1 over Toronto (I. L.).

SIX RUN HANDICAP IS NOTHING TO TIP TOPS

Home Batters Assail Their Topheavy Advantage.

STEVE EVANS KILLS BALL His Big Bat Wreaks Havoc in Both Games—Scores, 4 to 3 and 12 to 11.

By coming from behind on each afternoon game at Washington Park from the Pittsburgh Peds yesterday. The scores were 4 to 3 and 12 to 11.

Yesterday's Results. Brooklyn, 4; Pittsburgh, 3 (morning game). Buffalo, 1; Baltimore, 6 (morning game).

Standing of the Clubs. W. L. P. C. Indianapolis, 7; St. Louis, 6; Baltimore, 6; Chicago, 6.

TIGERS WIN SPRING GAME. Take Short Second Contest After Dropping 12 Inning Fry to Sox.

Detroit, Sept. 7.—The Tigers dropped the first game of the bill this afternoon to the Boston Red Sox by a score of 8 to 7.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

CHICAGO (A. L.) DETROIT (A. L.) Score: 8 to 7. First base on error—Murray.

ONLY ONE HIT OFF BENTLEY. GAVVY GRAVATH THORN IN SIDE OF BROOKLYNS

Washington Wins Morning Game, but Loses Second to Athletics.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

ONLY ONE HIT OFF BENTLEY. GAVVY GRAVATH THORN IN SIDE OF BROOKLYNS

Washington Wins Morning Game, but Loses Second to Athletics.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

ONLY ONE HIT OFF BENTLEY. GAVVY GRAVATH THORN IN SIDE OF BROOKLYNS

Washington Wins Morning Game, but Loses Second to Athletics.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

ONLY ONE HIT OFF BENTLEY. GAVVY GRAVATH THORN IN SIDE OF BROOKLYNS

Washington Wins Morning Game, but Loses Second to Athletics.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Washington won the morning game from the Athletics by 3 to 0. Bentley, the Senator's young southpaw, allowed but one hit and it was not until the ninth inning that a member of the visiting team reached second base.

RACING AT BELMONT PARK TODAY. SIX STIRRING EVENTS. INCLUDING THE $1000 MATRON STAKES. FIRST RACE AT 2:30 P. M.